Dear Wendell & Zina

We do hope you are well.
We saw Mervin Gardner in the office yesterday. She is doing quite well.

Wendell, I am assembling a history on Provo River Valley which includes many items.

Recently, my efforts are on grocery men in our County.

We know Adolphia Young Duke,
your father, was a grocer in Wellburg.
Could you send me a picture of him
& your mother. I would copy the pictures & return them to you.

Sincere best wishes,

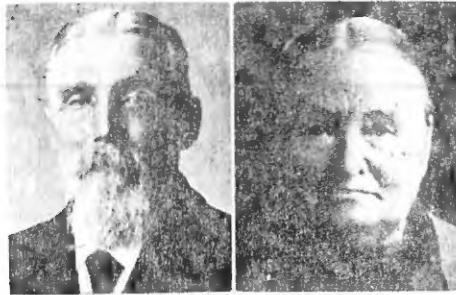

DLG-

The Home was made of logs. The n the rooms on the South and the north were built later with lumber
The st ore that my father had was sold by him to Elmo
Father and Elmo got it from his Father.

OLAUS T. NILSSON

Olaus T. Nilsson was born in Sweden on September 11, 1843. He came to Utah by ox team in Captain Nebeker's company in 1866. In the same company was a young widow, Anna Hanson. They became very friendly and were married in 1868. Of this union four children were born: Andrew, Oscar, Sarah and Josephine.

In 1873 they moved to Heber City, living in a one-room log cabin with a dirt roof, and enduring the hardships of early pioneer life.

Olaus was a farmer and later became the sexton at Heber City. He was a kind, honest man. He was a faithful Latter-day Saint, who spent much of his time in later years doing temple work.

He died June 11, 1917, at the age of 74, and was buried in Heber City.
